The Board in its order B.P. Mis. No.459, dated 12-2-1929 was pleased to sanction the retention of two spare locks in my District Treasury. Since then, three spare locks have been received in the Treasury - two of them being the locks used for an old currency chest (auctioned recently) and one used by me for the almyrah wherein confidential papers are kept, since returned to the Treasury.

I request that sanction may be accorded as required by Article 47 (a)(4) of the Madras Treasury Code for keeping these three locks in reserve, to provide for any future contingency.
